COMPANION

Sitka Spruce – Mahogany

The Discovery Companion Sitka Spruce – Mahogany travel guitars have a versatile play style ideal for strumming and rhythm to fingerstyle play. The travel-ready Companion body shape is constructed with a Sitka spruce top and mahogany back and sides for a clean, balanced and superb sounding guitar with a warm midrange tone. This is an ideal guitar for everyone serious about sound, but interested in a travel-size guitar body with uncompromised sound. Every level player will appreciate these guitars and sound better, play better and play more on a Breedlove Discovery Series guitar.
